Orange High School's Homecoming 2016

The eagerly anticipated Tornadoes Homecoming Game was held on October 15 at 1:00 p.m. Sunny and mild, the day held spirits high, as the Orange Tornadoes secured a 36 to 29 win over Nutley High School. The halftime festivities were a treat to the football fans and alumni who were there to celebrate the occasion. The Orange High School Cheerleaders, led by Ms. Tosha Brown and the Mighty Marching Tornadoes Band, led by Dr. Steven Reeves and Mr. Peter Abazia, pumped up the crowd, along with the flag twirlers and the OHS dancers.

October Board of Education Meeting

Rosa Parks Community School (RPCS) hosted the October 11 Board of Education Meeting. Students in the chorus, led by Ms. Mariel Johnson, opened with the Flag Salute, followed by the National Anthem. The chorus next sang, "Get on Your Feet," by Gloria Estefan, in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month. The RPCS 6/7 Grade Dance Ensemble, directed by Ms. Nadia Smith-McCoy, energized the audience with "Limbo" by Daddy Yankee and were given a rousing applause. Principal, Ms. Debra Joseph Charles thanked the students, staff and parents for their support.

Parent of the Month

Rosa Parks Community School selected Mr. Dwight Holmes as Parent of the Month. Mr. Holmes is currently the PTA president at Rosa Parks Community School and the President of the District's Parent Academy.

Mr. Holmes has been an involved parent at Rosa Parks Community School for several years. He has been an active member of the school family and is involved in all aspects of the school life. He is ever present and can be called on at anytime to do anything that promotes RPCS, its students, its families and, consequently, the entire community.

As PTA president, Mr. Holmes is instrumental in maintaining the membership of the very vibrant PTA. As PTA president, he has continued to offer many of the school's traditional opportunities available to parents, for example, bingo night, potlucks and pertinent academic information. With the help of his executive body, the PTA now offers several workshops that impact the daily lives of RPCS students and parents. Examples of this include Budgeting, How Money Works, seminars on nutrition and information related to PARCC.

Mr. Holmes does not seek recognition for any of the things he does. As a mentor, partner in education, advocate for students and parents and most importantly a friend. Rosa Parks Community School is honored to have a parent who is always going above and beyond. When he transitions to Orange Prep and OHS (his last child now in Grade 7), there will be a distinct void at RPCS. Congratulations to Mr. Dwight Holmes, on behalf of the Rosa Parks School community!

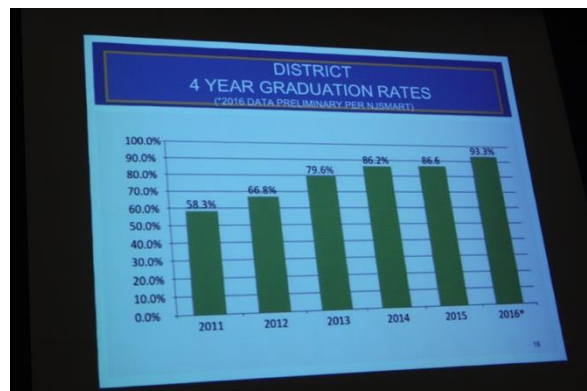

Board Meeting Presentations

Following the certificate awards, there were several presentations made to the Board:

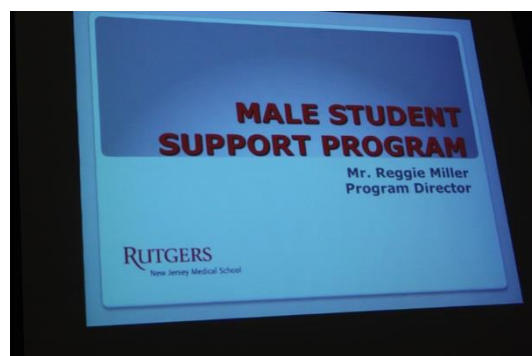

- 2016 PARCC Data Presentation
- Male Student Support (MSSP) Annual Report
- H.I.B. Grade Report Presentation

PARCC Results

Dr. Terri Russo, Director of Curriculum, Instruction, Professional Development, and Data Assessment presented the 2015-2016 results for the Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC). Students took PARCC English Language Arts and Literacy Assessments (ELA) in grades 3 - 11, PARCC Mathematics Assessments in grades 3 - 8 and End of Course Assessments in Algebra I, Geometry, and Algebra II. The results are posted on the district website and can be accessed via the Curriculum Overview webpage link: 2016 PARCC Results. Additionally, Dr. Russo shared preliminary graduation statistics for OHS, which has risen to 93.3% and the rise in college attendance for the 2016 graduates.

MSSP Annual Report

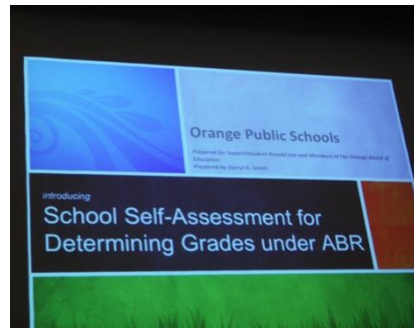

Mr. Reggie Miller, Program Director of the Male Student Support Program (MSSP) gave an Annual Report presentation to the Board. He recapped the goals and objectives of the mentoring organization, also known as the “brotherhood,” the various program and community service activities for the past year and the impact on the young men, including 57 students from Orange Preparatory Academy and 15 students from the Career and Innovation Academy of Orange.

The overall objective of the MSSP is to reach and positively impact the lives of adolescence males within the Orange community.

Some of the desired outcomes highlighted were:

- Enhanced academic performance
- Increased parent involvement
- Enhanced awareness of preventive health behavior
- Decreased “at risk” behavior
- Developed self-worth and responsibility
- A fostered sense of commitment to the community (Orange Pride)

The MSSP program is provided through the Rutgers - New Jersey Medical School, Division of Adolescent and Young Adult Medicine (DAYAM), in concert with the Orange Board of Education.

Ms. Shelly Harper, Director of Special Services presented the district's Schools Self Assessment for Determining Grades Under the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, for the period, July 1, 2015 - June 30, 2016.

The school self-assessment measures various areas of Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (HIB) policy, ranging from “HIB Programs, Approaches or Other Initiatives” to “HIB Reporting.” Below is a listing of each HIB core element on the grade report presented, as well as the maximum amount of points possible in that area. The total number of points that can be achieved is 78. The Overall District Total Average Score was 63.45. This information is posted on the district website at <http://www.orange.k12.nj.us>.

Public Comments - District Plans Town Hall Meeting

After the presentations, there were inquiries related to the status of Superintendent Lee's contract. It was announced that Superintendent Lee had just received a contract for his review. The letter from Board President Mateo, extending a formal offer to the Superintendent, was read for the record. Additionally, a few parents expressed concerns regarding test scores, the rigor of the district's curriculum and the overall achievement level of all students. Their concerns were addressed and noted for follow-up.

While not a direct response to any expressed concerns, Superintendent Lee announced that the district has planned a Superintendent's Town Hall Meeting, which is scheduled for November 2, 6:00 p.m., at Lincoln Avenue School.

The meeting is an open invitation to the community for a status on the district's Strategic Plan 2014-2017, a 2015-2016 data review, a presentation of 2016-2017 district initiatives, an update on the renovation/construction of Cleveland Street and Orange High Schools and an update on the new STEM School. Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Ronald C. Lee will host the meeting with District Directors giving key presentations. The forum will allow for deeper discussions regarding academic achievement, major district initiatives and facilities plans.

Lincoln Avenue School Week of Respect 2016

Submitted by Kathleen Feeley, School Counselor, Lincoln Avenue School

Lincoln Avenue School kicked off Week of Respect with a bang! Students from all grade levels signed their Respect Pledges on the Lincoln Avenue Week of Respect Banner. On Tuesday, students and staff united as a school to #StompOutBullying by participating in Blue Shirt Day. Halfway through the week students decorated their homeroom doors by displaying "What Respect Looks Like To Me." By the end of the week, students and staff were kind and fearless! They all dressed up as their favorite superhero to keep the vibe of Respect soaring through Lincoln Avenue halls.

FYI

Berry's Butterflies (Act NOW, there is still time to buy a shirt!)

The Orange Preparatory Academy female mentoring group, Berry's Butterflies, is recruiting mentees for the new school year. Many students have expressed an interest in becoming a Butterfly, which will make the group over 50 strong and will require more resources. To assist the group in its fundraising effort, Ms. Malika Berry, school counselor and group leader, has launched a shirt sale. "Our online shirt sale is open and ready for patrons," said Ms. Berry. "Please support the online sale. All proceeds will benefit the group's retreat. The sale will be open until October 21, 2016 and shirts will be delivered approximately 2 weeks after the final day. Tough Enough to Wear Pink Out

In recognition of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the Orange Public School District will again host the annual Pink Out Football Game on October 28, sponsored by the district's Athletic Department. Purchasing and wearing the new Pink-Out shirt*, which are being sold for $15, will gain the wearer free admission to the game against Newark's Central High School, at Bell Stadium in Orange, at 7:00 p.m.

Prior to the game, there will be two Pink Out Days, where participants will dress down in pink, on Friday, October 21 and Friday, October 28, 2016. To voluntarily dress down on those days, participants will make a $5 contribution to the American Cancer Society. All proceeds/donations will be presented to the American Cancer Society, on October 28, at the game.

 Pink-Out shirts must be worn for free admission.

The Orange Public Schools Collects for Haiti

The dress down day held on October 14, to collect funds to assist the victims in Haiti as a result of Hurricane Matthew, raised almost $4,500. Superintendent Lee thanks all those who made donations to this worthy cause.

National Principals Month

NATIONAL
MONTH

National Principals Month recognizes the essential role that principals play in making a school great. Each October, NASSP, NAESP, and AFSA seek to honor these unsung heroes for their tireless efforts in pursuit of excellence in education.

National Principals Month is marked by national and state resolutions supporting the event, as well as acknowledgements from top government officials. However, the most important National Principals Month celebrations are those that take place in schools and communities across the country.

Schools, let us know what you are doing to celebrate National Principals Month.
